10. [redacted] Mrs. Tomascik, in the office of Representative Daniel J. Flood, called concerning the application of [redacted] who is presently in Washington. Arrangements were made for her to meet with [redacted] Personnel, and Mrs. Tomascik was later advised that [redacted] would enter on duty with the Agency on 4 October in a GS-4 position.

11. [redacted] called to say that [redacted] had received from the Registration Section of the Department of Justice a letter suggesting that the [redacted] register with the Department under the Foreign Agents Registration Act. [redacted] said he was calling me directly since he had no other contact with the Agency. He added that while he did not object to filing the application he would have some difficulty in answering some of the questions on the form such as: what is the source of the [redacted] funds. I informed [redacted] that I would look into the matter and be in touch with him, probably tomorrow.

12. [redacted] Met briefly with Alfred Nittle, HCUA, to pick up a book written by Anatoli Granovskiy who has been cooperating with the Committee, is suffering from ulcers and is badly in need of employment. Nittle indicated further that they feel the matter of finding employment for him is a Committee responsibility.
